KAVANAUGH SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

The fourth annual session of the Kavanaugh (Circuit) Sunday School Association, convened in Kavanaugh Chapel, M. E. Church South, Sunday, August 15, 1915.

The session was opened by Rev. E. York, at 10:40 a. m., beginning with singing by the Kavanaugh choir, after which the Lords Prayer was repeated by entire audience.

The reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting by Secretary was approved and adopted. Singing by the Kavanaugh choir. The rolls of the Sun- day schools were called by their re- spective Superintendents as follows:

Round Bottom S. S. was reported by Butler Davis, Supt., with forty mem- bers present.

No report from Cyrus Chapel.

Mary Moore reported two present.

Buchanan Chapel reported by Supt. E. B. Curmuto, twenty present.

Cliff S. S. reported by Supt. J. F. Hat- ten, twenty-five members present.

Kavanaugh S. S. reported by Supt. B. F. Wright, forty-five members present.

A total membership of 132 reported present.

Attorney L. F. Zerfoss, of Ashland, Ky., then addressed the meeting in a most able manner, after which the fol- lowing committees were appointed:

Committee to examine Sunday school records, Chas. Warren and Zack Bel- lomy, reported that Cliff Sunday school secretary, Miss Bertha Ferguson, was entitled to the prize, and she was pre- sented a beautiful bible by Supt. J. F. Hatten, in behalf of the Association.

Committee to examine various schools to ascertain which is to be Banner School for ensuing year, appointed R. C. McClure and A. O. Carter. They awarded Kavanaugh S. S. the Banner.

Committee to nominate for the en- suing year W. H. Harris and Lewis Faulkner, reported E. B. Curmuto, V. P., Butler Davis, Treasurer, Jessie Ed-monds, Secretary. They were duly elect- ed by the Association.

Committee on Resolutions, J. O. Black, F. T. D. Wallace, Jr.

Resolved, First, That we are grateful to the Almighty for his kindness to us in giving us a bountiful crop, and a peaceful nation in which to serve him according to the dictates of our coun- science. Second, We desire to thank the officers and students of this body for their able support in the good work we are endeavoring to do. Third, We thank the choir and those who gave special service in rendering such splen- did music. Fourth, We thank the speak- ers for their splendid efforts, and the good people that so generously served us dinner, the committee that furnish- ed us ice water. Fifth, We desire to thank the C. & O. Ry. Co., for stop- ping the trains morning and evening for our convenience.

Committee on Laws and Regulations, B. F. Wright and J. F. Hatten.

Committee on Publication, Elizabeth Hatten and Mrs. F. T. D. Wallace, Jr. It is requested that this be published in the Big Sandy News and Laymen's Herald.

Jack Chadwick of Round Bottom was awarded the medal for memorizing the greatest number of Bible verses, being 698. Jack is a very bright and good boy.

At about 12 o'clock the meeting ad- journed for dinner to reconvene at 1:30 p. m.

Afternoon session met according to adjournment at 1:30 p. m. Singing by Cliff and Kavanaugh choir, Mr. M. S. Burns, County President, gave us quite an interesting address.

Singing by choir.
Mr. R. C. McClure gave us a very in- teresting address on Temperance. Mr. McClure handled his subject in a mas- terful manner.

Our old favorite Brother Rowland T. Burns, who so long held the office of President of Lawrence County Sunday School Association, and who for half of a century has so ably challenged the Sunday school cause, was with us and gave us one of his most splendid talks. He enthused the whole congregation and they joined him in one of his favorite songs "We'll Roll the Old Chariot Along." He made us all feel that the Holy Spirit was our guest.

Brother J. F. Hatten urged all schools in this association to get their reports in early in the future so the Secretary may have ample time to make out her report. Moved and seconded and car- ried that the incoming Secretary may make out the report later.

Moved, seconded, carried that we adopt percentage basis, in arriving at proper rating of the Sunday school.

We thank the Cliff Sunday school boys for their special quartet, Mr. Geo. Williamson, Mr. Lucien Smith and Mr. Walter Smith, for their music, and the choirs for theirs.

Moved, seconded, carried, that we meet at Kavanaugh chapel next year. Song, benediction, close.
